

SALES AT QMC CLUB MEETINGS

CONDITION

Most of the items sold at meetings are used; they may have cosmetic or optical damage and they are sold without guarantee. Purchasers buy goods 'as seen' and are responsible for checking if the goods are fit for purpose.

Transactions are between purchasers and sellers. Meetings organisers are not responsible for any problems

ELECTRICAL ITEMS

Unless otherwise stated items have not been PAT tested and should be checked by a qualified professional prior to use.

SALES POLICY

Used microscopes, lenses, accessories, slides, books, etcetera sold or given freely at meetings organised by the Quekett and by other societies are sold at reasonable prices for the benefit of amateur microscopists.

These items are NOT to be subsequently sold for commercial profit. Anyone found doing may be banned from any future meetings with a sales element, member auctions and any "free to good home" offers. This policy applies at all of the sales meetings in the UK.
